

Industry Specific Consulting

Legasii Consulting offers educators and our Faculty Partners cutting-edge expertise in scaling educational businesses. We provide comprehensive guidance on fulfillment, business structuring, mergers & acquisitions (M&A), partnerships, and strategic alliances. Our consulting services are designed to help educators grow their businesses efficiently and sustainably, leveraging the latest strategies and insights to achieve their goals.

High Ticket Sales Team

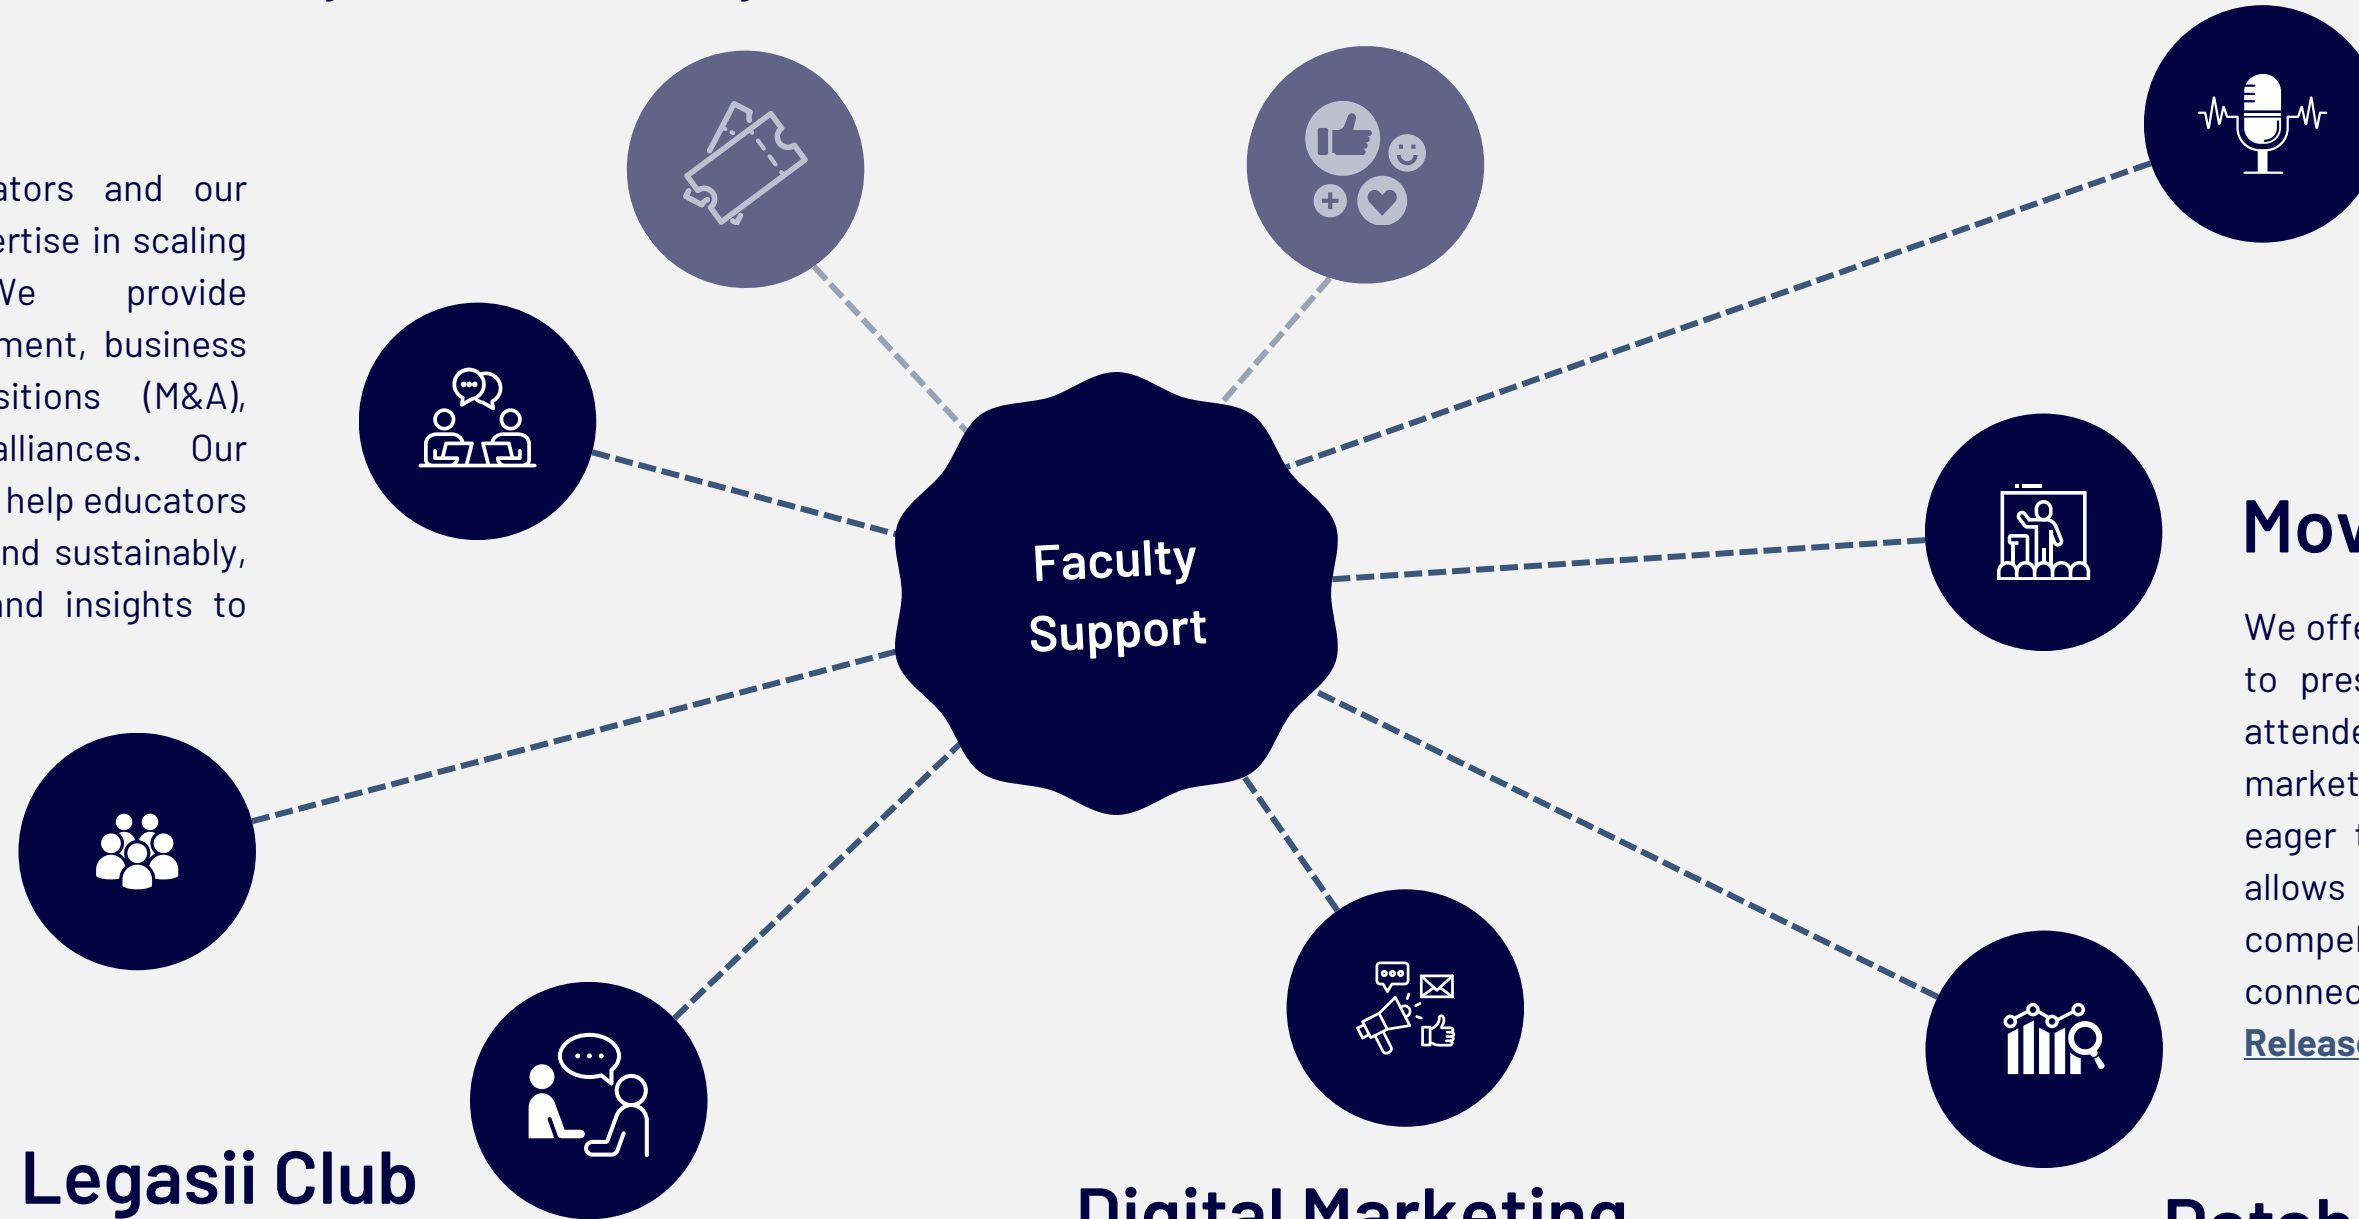

Legasii is launching an in-house high-ticket sales team to support Faculty Partners. While Partners will continue to lead sales for their products, our team will assist with overflow, ensuring no sales opportunities are missed and maximizing revenue from traffic we generate.

Social Media Ads Agency

We're excited to introduce our exclusive in-house social media service for Faculty Partners. This service enhances control over SEO, Google Ads, Facebook, Instagram, TikTok, and YouTube, boosting your online presence and reach.

Breakout

Breakout is a live, interactive audio social network that offers Faculty Partners a dynamic platform to host daily, weekly, or monthly online sessions with thousands of listeners worldwide. This platform is ideal for sharing insights on a wide range of topics, including Real Education, Trading, Entrepreneurship, and Biohacking. With Breakout, Faculty Partners can engage with a global audience, fostering real-time discussions and building a strong community around their expertise.

Movie Theaters/ Live Event

We offer our Faculty Partners the unique opportunity to present their expertise and mission in a fully attended movie theater setting. With our robust marketing efforts, we ensure a captivated audience eager to engage with their content. This platform allows Faculty Partners to deliver their message in a compelling and memorable way, creating impactful connections and driving meaningful results. Press Release

STG Syndicate

The STG Syndicate is where we provide comprehensive training on how to structure Joint Ventures and form strategic partnerships. Our program is designed to build a powerful network of 400 qualified JV partners, equipping participants with the knowledge and connections they need to drive growth and achieve success through collaboration.

Legasii Club

The Legasii.club is where we provide our Faculty Partners with a collaborative platform to share their expertise. Here, they speak alongside 15-20 other like-minded partners who all support each other. This synergy creates a powerful environment for growth, learning, and mutual success, as each partner contributes to and benefits from the collective knowledge and experience of the group.

Digital Marketing

Legasii Marketing is a full-service support system that Faculty Partners can rely on for trusted, cost-effective solutions. We offer optimized strategies that drive higher conversion rates while minimizing ad spend. Our goal is to provide the best value and results, allowing Faculty Partners to focus on their expertise while we handle the marketing that fuels their growth.

Database & AI Newsletter

Legasii's database has completed the scrubbing, deliverability checks, and warehouse cleanup. It is currently in the warm-up phase to ensure optimal deliverability. This database, combined with our AI-powered newsletter capabilities, will enhance communication efficiency and engagement across our network.
